

Development of INDC for Kiribati – requested expert profiles

International expert, Climate Change Policy Analysis specialist – team leader.

The team leader will be responsible for the overall coordination of the technical assistance and the team of experts. He will ensure the smooth running of the assignment and the quality of the deliverables. He/She will coordinate activities related to the inception of the mandate (activity 1 to 2), data collection on adaptation and mitigation (activity 3 to 5), elaboration of mitigation and adaptation options (activity 6), selection of priorities (activities 8), development of the INDC (activity 9), consultation workshops (activity 2, 7 and 10), and other deliverables.

He/she will also be the contact point for the Government, Expertise France and AFD. He/she will have the following profile:

- Master degree or equivalent in Political and Social Sciences with a specialization in environment/natural science aspects;
- At least 15 years of experience in the coordination of development initiatives linked to climate change;
- Significant experience in providing technical support to governments for the development of policies and strategies related to climate change aspects;
- Previous experience in the coordination and facilitation of high level consultation processes;
- Clear understanding of the INDC process;
- Clear understanding of the political framework, current situation and future needs of Kiribati in terms of climate change mitigation;
- Previous experience in Kiribati or Pacific countries;
- Previous experience in the coordination and management of multi-cultural teams;
- Good working relationship with the government of Kiribati is an advantage; and
- Excellent communication and writing skills.

The level of effort for this expert is estimated at 30 days.

International expert, climate change mitigation and GHG emissions specialist

This expert will coordinate, in collaboration with the national expert on climate change mitigation, activities related data collection on mitigation (activity 3 to 5), elaboration of mitigation options (activity 6), selection of priorities (activities 8), development of the INDC (activity 9), and other deliverables. He/she will have the following profile:

- Master degree or equivalent in Environment/Economy/Energy/Agriculture/Natural Sciences;
- At least 15 years of experience in climate change mitigation;
- Clear understanding of the INDC process;
- Clear understanding of the political framework, current situation and future needs of Kiribati in terms of climate change mitigation;
- Previous experience in Kiribati or other Pacific countries; and
- Excellent communication and writing skills.

The level of effort for this expert is estimated at 25 days.

International Expert, climate change adaptation specialist

This expert will coordinate activities, in collaboration with the national expert on adaptation, related to data collection on adaptation (activity 3 to 5), elaboration of adaptation options (activity 6), selection of priorities (activities 8), development of the INDC (activity 9), and other deliverables. He/she will have the following profile:

- Master degree or equivalent in Environment/Economy/Energy/Agriculture/Natural Sciences;
- At least 15 years of experience in climate change adaptation;
- Significant experience in the identification of adaptation options for Pacific ocean countries;
- Clear understanding of the INDC process;
- Clear understanding of the political framework, current situation and future needs of Kiribati in terms of climate change adaptation;

- Previous experience in Kiribati or other Pacific countries; and
- Excellent communication and writing skills.

The level of effort for this expert is estimated at 25 days.

International expert, socio-economist specialist in environment and climate change

The socio economic expert will be in charge of the organization and facilitation of the inception (activity 2), and consultation (activity 7) workshops, in coordination with the team leader. He/she will lead the stakeholder mapping exercise (activity 5). Finally, he/she will be involved in the estimation of the human, technical and financial means needed for the implementation of the INDC during the elaboration of implementation guidelines (activity 11). He/she will have the following profile:

- Master degree or equivalent in social and economic sciences with a specialization in environment or climate change-related issues;
- A minimum of 15 years of experience in the coordination of development initiatives related to climate change;
- Clear understanding of the political framework, current situation and future needs of Kiribati in terms of climate change;
- Significant experience in the coordination and facilitation of high level political consultation processes;
- Good knowledge of climate finance mechanisms;
- Strong knowledge of political and sectoral stakeholders in Kiribati;
- Previous experience in Kiribati or Pacific countries; and
- Excellent communication and writing skills.

The level of effort of this expert is estimated at 20 days

National expert, climate change mitigation and GHG emissions specialist.

This expert will contribute, in coordination with the international expert on mitigation, to activities related to data collection on mitigation (activity 3 to 5), elaboration of mitigation options (activity 6), selection of priorities (activities 8), development of the INDC (activity 9), and other deliverables. He/she will have the following expertise:

- Master degree or equivalent in Environment/Economy/Energy/Agriculture/Natural Sciences;
- At least 10 years of experience in climate change mitigation and GHG emission projections;
- Clear understanding of the INDC process;
- Clear understanding of the political framework, current situation and future needs of Kiribati in terms of climate change mitigation;
- Good working relationship with the government of Kiribati is an advantage; and
- Excellent communication and writing skills.

The level of effort for this expert is estimated at 20 days.

National Expert, climate change adaptation specialist

This expert will contribute, in coordination with the international expert on adaptation, to activities related to data collection on adaptation (activity 3 to 5), elaboration of adaptation options (activity 6), selection of priorities (activities 8), development of the INDC (activity 9), and other deliverables. He/she will have the following profile:

- Master degree or equivalent in Environment/Economy/Energy/Agriculture/Natural Sciences;
- At least 10 years of experience in climate change adaptation;
- Significant experience in the identification of adaptation options in Kiribati;
- Clear understanding of the INDC process;
- Clear understanding of the political framework, current situation and future needs of Kiribati in terms of climate change adaptation; and
- Excellent communication and writing skills.

The level of effort for this expert is estimated at 20 days.